

Test Your Knowledge

Submit your answers at www.ukforestry.org The randomly selected entry of those with the most correct answers will receive a free copy of Identifying Kentucky's Forest Trees.

Hint: See article on page 1.

1. The emerald ash borer (EAB) is showing up in more counties each year. In which county was the EAB found during the 2012 EAB trapping season?

- a) Jefferson
- b) Pulaski
- c) Pike
- d) Boyd

2. Woodland roads are an important asset that allow woodland owners to access, manage and protect their woodlands. The maintenance of these roads is very important; what preventative step can be taken to help roads dry out faster?

- a) Paving
- b) Daylighting
- c) Limiting animal traffic

Hint: See article on page 10.

3. Given that parts of Kentucky are under an emerald ash borer quarantine, what are the current recommendations for dealing with immature ash on your woodland?

- a) Allow them to grow but don't invest time or efforts in helping them grow better
- b) Perform crop tree management techniques to aid their growth
- c) Harvest them

Hint: See article on page 4.

4. The Kentucky Woodland Owners Annual meeting will be held on April 9-10 and is open to everyone. Which Kentucky state park will be hosting the event?

Hint: See article on page 9.

- a) Jenny Wiley
- b) Blue Licks
- c) Kentucky Dam
- d) Natural Bridge

5. The hemlock woolly adelgid is a serious threat to Kentucky's hemlocks. Cultural, chemical (ex. insecticides), and biological controls are currently being used to combat this threat. Which treatment is currently the most effective?

Hint: See article on page 14.

- a) Cultural
- b) Chemical
- c) Biological

Scan this code with your smartphone or tablet device to submit your answers.

